

Welcome to Aviva - Get Active. The discounted offers for Get Active are sourced and hosted by Incorporate Limited and featured on the MyActiveDiscounts and MyGymDiscounts websites. In order to take advantage of the discounted health and fitness club membership you will need to complete the following steps. We recommend that you print this information and save it for future reference. This website, the offers and the conclusion of the contract are only available in English.

1. Contract Status

1.1 Please note, if you buy a membership or subscription to a service online you will be applying for and entering into a legally binding contract with the health and fitness club or retailer of your choice which may include conditions such as a minimum duration of membership or subscription term. The terms and conditions relating to memberships and subscriptions vary between providers. You can read the terms and conditions for any offer by clicking through to the relevant club or retailer promotion.

1.2 CAUTION: if you are already a member of a health club or you already subscribe to a featured service within the Get Active offers provided via Incorporate's MyActiveDiscounts.co.uk or MyGymDiscounts.co.uk, please check your membership or subscription before progressing with a new application. Applying for membership or subscription via this website will not cancel or terminate your existing membership or subscription; you will need to take steps to do this yourself before progressing with an application through this site. Early termination of your current gym membership and subscription may result in penalty charges, neither Aviva Health UK Limited nor any other company in the Aviva group (together, referred to as "Aviva") will be liable for such charges.

2. Aviva's role

Any contract that you enter into will be between you and the health and fitness club or retailer you have chosen. Aviva will not be a party to that contract. Aviva's role in this process is to facilitate an introduction between you and the health clubs and retailers featured on Incorporate's MyActiveDiscounts and MyGymDiscounts site. It is your responsibility to ensure that the offers you choose are suitable for your purposes; in assisting you with this introduction, Aviva makes no representation, express or implied, that the businesses and companies stated in this website are of a particular nature or standard or are suitable for your purposes, and this introduction does not constitute a recommendation,
