This is a summary of our insurance policy. All the terms and conditions (along with other important information) will be contained on our website and in the policy documents.

What is this type of insurance?

Aviva Accidental Death Insurance provides a fixed tax free benefit in the event of the death of an insured person, which is the direct result of an accident. An accident is a single, unexpected, unforeseen and unintentional incident that is not a symptom of a disease or illness.

What is insured?

- ✓ Cover for the amount you choose, which will be shown on the schedule if you suffer an accident that results directly in your death
- ✓ You can choose cover from £20,000 to £150,000
- ✓ We will pay out even if you're covered by other Personal Accident insurance

Optional cover

- You can choose to add your partner to this insurance

What is not insured?

- X Death caused by:
 - illness or disease that is not a direct result of the accident,
 - known side effects of medication or known risks from surgery
- X Any claim resulting from:
 - use of drugs,
 - consumption of alcohol to an extent that the insured person suffers mental or physical impairment, which is the principal cause of the accident, or results in them doing something uncharacteristically reckless or dangerous
 - being in control of a motor vehicle and acting in a dangerous or reckless manner, or drink or drug driving,
 - suicide or deliberate self-inflicted injury

Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! Cover is available as long as you are aged 18 and over and under 85
- ! Your main private residence must be in the UK
- ! If you choose to add cover for your partner, they must also be aged 18 and over and under 85 – and live with you
- ! Death must occur within 24 months of the original accident

Where am I covered?

- ✓ This policy will cover you anywhere in the world

What are my obligations?

- You must take reasonable care to give us complete and accurate answers to any questions we ask
- You must tell us about any changes to the information on the schedule
- You must tell us if your main private residence is no longer in the UK
- You must pay your monthly premiums on time
- In the event of a claim you must provide us with all information and evidence we reasonably request
- You must tell us if any insured person no longer meets the eligibility criteria.

When and how do I pay?

Premiums are paid monthly by Direct Debit – the amount will be shown on your schedule.

When does the cover start and end?

Cover starts immediately and continues until your 85th birthday as long as you continue to pay the premiums – unless you die, move abroad or the policy is cancelled by you or us.

For more information, see the 'When this insurance will end' section of the Policy Booklet.

Your policy runs continuously. You don't need to renew this insurance – but we will write to you annually to remind you of the benefits.

You should review your circumstances on a regular basis and consider whether this insurance continues to meet your needs.

How do I cancel the contract?

You have the right to cancel the policy at any time.

If you cancel within 14 days of purchase (or on the day you receive the policy documents, if that's later), we'll refund any money paid – providing no claim has been made. If you have made a claim and then cancel within this period, you will receive a refund for the premium paid less a proportionate deduction for the time we have provided cover.

If you cancel after the 14-day 'cooling off' period, you will receive a refund for any advance premium paid less a proportionate deduction for the time we have provided cover. If any premium is due up to the date of cancellation, we will collect this on the date outlined in your cancellation letter.

To cancel, call 0800 158 3993 or write to us at Aviva, PO Box 3553, Norwich NR1 3DA.
